During the period 15 January 1963 to 2 February 1963 the rail and telephone conversations of Richard KAUDER-ALATT, born 6 September 1900 in Vienna, Austria, with offices at Schwarzerstrasse 30, Salzburg, Land Salzburg, Austria, were intercepted by the Civil Censorship Group, (CCG), Austria. The following eleven suspicious telephone conversations engaged in by SUBJECT during this period are herewith reported. The CCG intercepts, in the English language as received from CCG, are attached to the file copy only of this report; copies of these intercepts are attached to the other copies of this report as EXHIBITS I through XI, as follows: (Ref. AGENT'S NOTES 2)

EXHIBIT I: In the first of the eleven conversations, which took place on 27 January 1963 at 1130 hours, an unidentified woman in Salzburg told SUBJECT that engineer Wepo had visited her on the previous day and had told her that he could "...bring the cigarettes but toothpaste, etc., that's difficult". Wepo then told her that if "it" was urgently needed "it" had to be ordered early, and that he hoped "he" would take the cigarettes. To that information SUBJECT replied "all right".

EXHIBIT II: In the second of the eleven conversations, which took place on 27 January 1963 at 1825 hours, an unidentified man, calling from telephone number 87017 in Salzburg, o/o Dr. Walter Heinselmann, Gaissbergstrasse 25 told SUBJECT that the only thing he was worrying about was that "Hodo" was always carrying the "...bad stuff" in his pocket and that he (the unidentified man) wanted "radio" on's against it. He then related that "he" would be "here" until Thursday, and that "from Thursday on" "he" would be in Michael-Platzstrasse 17 near Hirschenfeld. He then related that on Thursday "we" were going to leave and that on Friday "we" shall have settled down to some extent. To this information SUBJECT replied "all right".

EXHIBIT III: In the third of the eleven conversations, which took place on 28 January 1963 at 0701 hours, SUBJECT engaged in conversation with a Miss Fleischer, telephone number 1814, Salzburg, o/o Dr. Tobias, Hirschenfeldstrasse. In this conversation SUBJECT repeated the terms of interest on a 625 Schilling debt.

At the end of the conversation, an arrangement was made for Hirsh Fleischer to go to "Berger" and pick up the money.

EXHIBIT V. In the fourth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 16 January 1953 at 07 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with a Mrs. Adamie, Salzburg, in which she told him that she had a letter for him and SUBJECT replied that he had not as yet received it. Mrs. Adamie then related that "Gutmann" was still sick, that she would meet him the next day and that "Gutmann" might come to "Nischenhall". After instructing Mrs. Adamie to open his letter, SUBJECT informed her that he now had "...everything in my hand" and that he had just added the man from Innsbruck. He then said that there was also a letter from the "Hildehofer" firm and that he had already notified her that Mrs. Adamie was coming to "...pick up the things". He then said that he wanted to tell everything and asked if the letter she had referred to was from her or from "Gutmann". Adamie informed him that it was from herself, that she was leaving the next day, and that she would see him again.

EXHIBIT VI. In the fifth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 19 January 1953 at 1444 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with an unidentified woman in his office and asked her if she had taken care of something. Being told that she had, he then told her that it was very nice indeed and asked if anything else had happened, saying that "Hilse" might come and say. He then said that his secretary was not thinking of anything and asked if anything had come from "Oberndorf". The woman told him that no one had come out that they had firmly promised to do so and that they might still phone. SUBJECT replied that he was not going to run after them and told the woman to remind him of "Hilse", when he would write tomorrow.
He then asked if "Hilse" had phoned. The woman replied that she would be interested to know where "Hilse" is at present and asked if he were in Graz. SUBJECT then replied that if "Hilse" were not "...even writing reports we will not send him anything more".

EXHIBIT VI: In the sixth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 2 February 1953 at 0941 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with the wife of Dr. Reinhold Moebius, Sigmund Haffnergasse, Salzburg, telephone number 1614. SUBJECT asked to speak with Dr. Moebius and, when told by Mrs. Moebius that the doctor had been in court since early morning, SUBJECT said that he had overlooked something, that he didn't remember the date, and that it was "... Justus Sieber, today at 4:30". Mrs. Moebius replied that she could tell the doctor when he came in and SUBJECT then told her that he lives in Traugottsgasse and that he might have missed the bus. He also said that his opponent was in Vienna. Mrs. Moebius related that her husband would be home at 10 o'clock and that he would phone SUBJECT immediately. SUBJECT then asked if he should phone "Sieber" and was told by Mrs. Moebius not to phone until such time as he had talked to Dr. Moebius.

EXHIBIT VII: In the seventh of the eleven conversations, which took place on 2 February 1953 at 1021 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with an unidentified doctor (Ref. AGENT'S NOTES 2.) in Salzburg and stated that he was being sued and that the hearing would be on the 30th. SUBJECT then related that he wanted to tell the doctor everything, including the "... Vienna affair". SUBJECT then told the doctor that he had talked to "Nikoladoni" in Linz the day before and that "Nikoladoni" had said that he was not going to do anything because "... this was not a good man". (Ref. AGENT'S NOTES 4.) SUBJECT then related that he was expecting "Victor" (Ref. AGENT'S NOTES 5.) The doctor replied that he was quite upset that "Nikoladoni" had refused to do anything and that they would have to talk it all over sometime. SUBJECT replied that he was just waiting for the money which, upon receiving it, he would bring to the doctor. The doctor then made an appointment for "... today or Monday".

EXHIBIT VIII: In the eighth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 2 February 1953 at 0950 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with an unidentified woman in Salzburg. SUBJECT asked if he could speak to a Dr. Kittl, and was informed that

Dr. Kittl had just left and would see SUBJECT by ten o'clock. SUBJECT then asked if Dr. Kittl had learned anything from abroad and was informed that he had not. SUBJECT then asked if "Hugo" had been with the doctor, and added that "Hugo" was a very funny person and that he was "...somewhat cracked".

EXHIBIT 1A: In the ninth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 3 February 1953 at 1002 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with an unidentified man, telephone number 40, Oberndorf, Land Salzburg, o/o Oberndorfer Bruckerei. SUBJECT related to the man that he had been told by "...the lady" that "...the man" would come on Thursday evening. The unidentified man stated that "the lady" had become sick. SUBJECT then said that he did not know "...whether you are interested in orders", that the matter had become urgent for him, and that he did not know how this could be practically achieved. An appointment was then made between SUBJECT and the unidentified man for 1900 hours at the Kupertshof (Ref. AGENT'S NOTED 3) where SUBJECT would explain everything.

EXHIBIT A: In the tenth of the eleven conversations, which took place on 3 February 1953 at 1845 hours, SUBJECT engaged in a conversation with a Mr. Weinmann, o/o the Community Office (Gemeindeamt) Grossgmain, Land Salzburg, Austria. SUBJECT told Mr. Weinmann that he had discussed the matter and that things "...have been moved up". Upon being asked by Mr. Weinmann if he wanted the mayor to come to him, SUBJECT replied that he did, but that he would call Mr. Weinmann again. SUBJECT then said that the best thing would have been to have submitted a request for abolition before the hearing, and after it an application requesting a suspended sentence. He further said that if the people hadn't paid as yet the matter could be arranged in this manner. Mr. Weinmann then told SUBJECT that the mayor would come to see to see him, and asked if SUBJECT wanted Weinmann to "...pass something on to your people at home?". SUBJECT replied that he did not, and Weinmann stated that he would inform the mayor about SUBJECT's call.

EXHIBIT XI: In the eleventh of the eleven conversations, which took place on 3 February 1968 at 1127 hours, SUBJECT called Dr. Kittl, Salzburg, and asked for Major Kaiser. Dr. Kittl informed SUBJECT that Major Kaiser was not there but that he was expected.

AGENT'S NOTES: 1. The number "1" in all EXHIBIT XI represents the caller, whose name appears in the upper left-hand portion of the page. The number "2" in all EXHIBIT XI represents the called, whose name appears in the upper right-hand portion of the page.

2. The doctor referred to is probably Dr. Reinhold Meibum, Sigundo Haffnerplatz, Salzburg, Austria.

3. This is a reference to the Superturhof Hotel, Rupertsgasse 10, Salzburg, Austria, currently being operated by SUBJECT.

4. On 28 January 1968, the files of this out-Department were examined for information concerning personalities mentioned in this report with the following results:

100
Dr. Hugo Mittel, born 2 November 1908 in Nibburg, GSH, residing at Amers Street 28, Salzburg, probably identical with the Dr. (now) Mittel in this report, is mentioned in Agent Report, 8-14178, dated 2 July 1962, subject: "ALTMANN, Viktor; alias KOLLMANN; alias ALMAN, Alleged British Agent", (classification 1-3) as a former German intelligence (Abwehr) officer who allegedly was present at conferences between Viktor Altmann and Richard KAUDER-KLAFF. He allegedly travels frequently to Italy, Switzerland and London, England. Mittel is also mentioned in numerous other reports as a former German intelligence agent now working for the British intelligence service.

100
Dr. Ernst Nickelmann, probably identical with the "Nickelmann" mentioned in this report, is mentioned in

Abstract

On 27 January 1951 Stanislaus Sokolow, born 7 June 1924 in Iskrex, Bulgaria, currently confined for dope smuggling in the Land Court (Landesgericht) Jail, Salzburg, and Salzburg, Austria, was interviewed by this Agent in the German language through Informant 3797 concerning his acquaintance with Richard Earl KLUDEK. Sokolow stated that he first met KLUDEK in 1950, when Sokolow was employed as a contact man between the paper firm Branein, located in Vienna, Austria, and Rene Marana, a business representative employed by KLUDEK. KLUDEK's office at Schwarzstrasse 30, Salzburg, consisted of three rooms. KLUDEK's private secretary, Miss Marie Hockner, worked in the first room; KLUDEK and one Mrs. Herbert Kipfinger in the second; and KLUDEK in the third. Sokolow came frequently to KLUDEK's office, never entered KLUDEK's room but spent his time in Marana's office. During one visit in 1950 when Sokolow was sitting in Marana's office with Marana, KLUDEK-KLUDEK came into the room and requested that Sokolow leave, stating that he (KLUDEK-KLUDEK) had a man in his office who would like to leave but wished to do so without being seen by Sokolow. Sokolow refused to leave, stating that he was awaiting a telephone call. After a time Sokolow told Marana that he could wait no longer for the telephone call, and requested that KLUDEK-KLUDEK be notified so that the man sitting in KLUDEK-KLUDEK's office could leave. Marana stated, however, that the visitor had already left through the window of KLUDEK-KLUDEK's room. KLUDEK-KLUDEK told Sokolow that he worked during World War II in the German Intelligence Laboratory sometime during the year 1943. Sokolow made a repeat request that KLUDEK-KLUDEK let one Mr. Marana of the Salzburg office pass at that time at Horstall-gasse 5, Salzburg. Marana, however, KLUDEK-KLUDEK forbade Sokolow to come to KLUDEK-KLUDEK's office any more although he failed to give a reason for the refusal. Marana, KLUDEK-KLUDEK's secretary.
